

Working Student (m/f/d) Technology

The manufacture of wind energy plants in the on-shore segment has been our core competence and passion for around 35 years. National subsidiaries in more than 30 markets and production facilities in Germany, Spain, Brazil, the USA, Mexico and India offer our more than 9,600 employees the opportunity for international and intercultural cooperation.

We are growing and together driving forward the expansion of alternative energies worldwide - if you wish, from now on with you. Join the #TeamNordex

YOUR TASKS

As a working student (m/w/d) in the Engineering Concept Development you will see a high variance of topics and will work very closely with a team of experienced engineers on the following topics:

- Project management support for technology projects of wind turbines.
- Preparation of presentations, business cases and data evaluations.
- Project cost controlling and cost analysis.
- Logging protocols of meetings.
- Identifying and prioritizing innovations and ideas
- Participation in the planning, controlling, implementation, tracking and closing of development projects
- Research in new technologies
- Support in general Models WTG
- Support in benchmarking
- The work location is in our offices in Rostock, remote work is only rarely possible

YOUR PROFILE

- Student of Business Engineering, Engineering or equivalent
- Involvement in wind turbine technology desirable
- Can work independently or as part of a team
- Clear and structured communication skills
- Structured approach of executing project tasks
- Creative in finding technical and non-technical solutions
- Profound skills in MS Excel and PowerPoint mandatory, skills in MS Project, CAD software desirable
- Fluent in English and German

Application at Nordex Career Page: Working Student \(m/f/d\) Technology

Posting date: 20.11.2023, Starting date: 01.03.2024, Contract type: limited, Working time: part-time

Nordex adheres to a policy of equal employment opportunity. All employment decisions are made without regard to religion, age, sex, color, national origin, handicap, or other protected class and in full compliance with all federal and state laws.